The A. M. Qattan Foundation
Trustees' Report
For the year ended 31 March 2010

Governance
The Charity is governed by policies and procedures devised originally with support from a professional firm of auditors to cover all operations. Semi-annual reports on all programmes and projects are submitted to the Board for discussion, guidance and approval. The Board meets with the Management Committee of the Charity at least twice a year. The Management Committee is composed of all members of staff at Director level.

The Constitution of the Charity
A registered charity - a company limited by guarantee

Method for Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees
This is a privately funded charity and so far the board is mainly constituted from its founding members. Recommendation and selection of members is the responsibility of the Board. No external bodies or individuals are allowed to appoint trustees.

Risk Management
The Trustees recognise that protecting the Charity from harm is essential to the AM Qattan Foundation’s ability to implement its programmes. A Risk Management Policy and a Risk Register are in place and are regularly reviewed and then approved by the Board of Trustees. The Register identifies the major risks to which the Charity may be exposed. To minimise these risks, the Trustees have established rigorous financial controls and procedures for the authorisation of projects and transactions.

All significant activities are subject to a risk review as part of their initial assessment and thereafter during implementation. Major risks are then identified in terms of their likelihood and potential impact. These include risks affecting:

- Operational performance, including risks to our staff, partners, beneficiaries and consultants;
- Achievement of our aims and objectives and
- The expectations of our beneficiaries and supporters.

Public Benefit
We have referred to the guidance in the Charity Commission’s general guidance on Public Benefit when reviewing our aims and objectives and in planning our future activities. In particular, the Trustees, as well as all senior members of staff, are asked to carefully consider how planned activities will contribute to the aims and objectives they have set. The Strategic Review process launched in late 2008, and which continues over the reporting period, has as one of its main aims a rigorous correlation between the Charity’s stated aims, values and objectives and its operational strategies and achievements. The process will also put into place a number of evaluation procedures which will allow the Trustees to regularly monitor this correlation to ensure that benefit to the public, and specifically to our target group, is achieved.

In that regard, the Trustees are satisfied that all activities and the benefits arising from them are strictly in line with the Charity’s stated aims; that its activities are solely focussed on children, teachers and young artists and creators; that all opportunities and benefits are offered on an open, transparent but competitive basis, while ensuring that activities are distributed across geographical, economic and social areas and strata with a specific focus on marginalised or impoverished communities (for example in rural areas or refugee camps), without compromising the quality of services provided.

The Charity's Aims and Beneficiaries
The A.M. Qattan Foundation was founded and registered as a charity in the UK in 1994. Since 1998, it has worked towards the development of culture and education in Palestine, with a particular focus on children, teachers and young artists through programmes that foster critical thinking, creativity and the production of knowledge. Its core programmes are:

The Qattan Centre for Educational Research and Development actively participates in raising the standards of education and teaching in Palestine. It engages directly with schoolteachers and administrators in developing their skills and knowledge to improve learning conditions for pupils of all ages.
The A. M. Qattan Foundation
Trustees' Report
For the year ended 31 March 2010

The Qattan Centre for the Child in Gaza City holds over 105,000 books and other media and offers a variety of library and information services. Established to compensate for the lack of incentives and opportunities open to children at school and elsewhere, it aims to nurture their curiosity, expand their knowledge and facilitate their access to outside cultures. The Centre provided free in-house services to its 12,000 members and to thousands more through its outreach programme.

The Culture and Arts Programme supports talented people, particularly the young, in a number of creative fields, offering them incentives to develop their skills and explore new horizons. It also promotes cultural collaboration between Palestine, the Arab region and the rest of the world. Three major projects embody the spirit of this work: a funding programme in the performing arts, co-financed with the Ford Foundation; the Palestinian Audio-visual Project, which works in film and Television training, DVD publishing and distribution, school film education and film subtitling; and, most recently, the Gaza Music School Project, co-funded with the Swedish International Development Agency.

The Mosaic Rooms, a new space for exhibitions, lectures and workshops in Central London, opened to the general public in November 2008. A permanent office building in Ramallah combined with a state-of-the-art cultural centre is currently in the design phase and is planned to open in 2012-2013.

Objectives, Achievements and Identification of needs
These have not changed and remain as follows:

Vision
A just, free, enlightened and tolerant society with a global presence; one that embraces dialogue and is a producer of knowledge, art and literature.

Mission Statement
An independent, not-for-profit developmental institution working in the culture and education sectors targeting a variety of social groups, particularly children, teachers and young artists, which

- Aims to empower free-thinking, enlightened individuals to overcome the challenges of war and injustice and to create a flourishing and dynamic society in Palestine and the Arab World;

- Adopts a long-term, participatory developmental ethos through programmes that foster critical thinking, research, creativity and the production of knowledge, while also providing an inspiring model of transparency and excellence;

- Advocates cultural and educational development as an essential tool of resistance for a society faced by conditions of acute political instability and humanitarian catastrophe.

Values
Defence of the rights and dignity of all
Inspired by the enduring vision enshrined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which affirms that “All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed with reason and conscience and should act towards one another in a spirit of brotherhood,” the Foundation supports women and men to combine their self-development with the service of others, specifically through the provision of inclusive public services of a high standard.

Freedom, pluralism, dialogue, the production of knowledge and new thinking
The Foundation believes in the individual’s rights to freedom of thought, creed, and free expression. These rights are key components of its internal policies and its work in the fields of culture and education, where the sharing of ideas and practices is considered essential for the production of knowledge and new thinking.

Working in a collegiate spirit of productivity
The Foundation is aware that it can only realise its goals if it has the support of its target constituencies and their shared agreement on the value, meaning and potential effectiveness of its work. As such, it always aims to operate in a collegiate spirit of cooperation and partnership with its staff and the groups it serves, whether they are children, artists or teachers.

The courage to be just
The Foundation realises that long-term peace, equality and prosperity require the courage to be just and defend the oppressed.

The Charity's projects and programmes, which are all based on identified needs in Palestinian society, actively operate within the framework of the values adopted to fulfil the mission and vision of the Charity.

Strategy
The key elements of our medium to long-term strategy are:

- Implementing the five-year strategic plan (2009 – 2013), including revision and development of all policies and completion of new organisational structure, salary scale, matrix of authority, etc, with a view to greater integration between different geographical offices and between the three programmes;
- Expansion of new partnerships with a view to achieving 40% co-funding goal by 2014;
- Continuous expansion of our user-base among target groups, both in and outside Palestine;
- Continuous expansion of our networks of international institutions (and individuals) with which we develop common projects in education and/or culture;
- Growth of our ability to influence educational and cultural policy in Palestine.

How we measure the success of the strategy?

- Regular assessment of demand on the services provided, especially to teachers, trainers and children;
- Degree of response and attendance by public in our cultural activities;
- Press coverage of our activities;
- Participation (both qualitative and quantitative) in the various activities of the Culture and Arts Programme both inside and outside Palestine;
- The Foundation also carries out independent, periodic evaluations of its projects and programmes using relevant expertise.

Herewith is a summary of activities of the Foundation's three main programmes:

1) The Qattan Centre for the Child – Gaza City
Director: Reem Abu Jaber

The Centre provides an open space where children can express themselves freely, give free rein to their imagination, be creative and overcome the difficult circumstances that they and the Gaza Strip are living through. With membership exceeding 17,000 since its establishment in 2005 and the annual number of visits reaching 58,006 children and adults.

The Centre's outreach services programme benefited from three external funding opportunities, one from SDC - Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation and two from Save the Children (UK). Among other activities, it organized 41 separate performances and events in 24 different schools and was enjoyed by more than 9,000 children.

The Library
The Library's collection topped 108,445 items including books, videos, cassettes, CDs and material for children with special needs. External lending, where children borrow books and CDs to take home, reached 98,199 items and internal lending, where children use books and CDs inside the library reached 172,077 items.

Library Activities
To promote the use of the library and encourage reading, QCC librarians held a series of cultural activities aimed as "magnets" for children to use the library resources and develop their habit of reading, research and self-learning. The Family Literacy Programme successfully implemented its first year of activity in collaboration with 27 kindergartens. At 1,257 parent and child, attendance was excellent, although we were disappointed with the very low turnout of fathers (only 27, i.e. 2.15%) The Centre plans to further develop and expand this programme.

Arts Programme
The Centre provides an arts programme that covers the visual arts, drama, cinema and other recreational activities. During the reporting period, it organized workshops, events and film screenings through its six principle clubs: the reading club, the drama and theatre club, the popular dance club, the choir, the little artist and the electronic writers' club.

IT Literacy
The Centre organized a number of specialized IT courses, ranging from introductory to advanced, in subjects such as Visual Basic, video editing, Front Page, Photoshop, Windows, MSWord, website design and other programme through its Web Designers Club, its Programmers Club and its Librarians' Club.

2) The Qattan Centre for Educational Research and Development in Ramallah and Gaza City (QCERD)
Director: Wasim Kurdi

Palestinian teachers remain the primary focus of the QCERD work and it continues to support them through three major tracks: Arts and Education; Science and Education; and Languages/The Social Sciences and Education, using the following approaches:

Educational Research
Three research approaches were adopted:

1. Creative-Reflective Research, where researchers, teachers and students were full partners in the research projects. Seven research topics were undertaken all related directly to the daily lives and reflections of the participants.
2. Applied Research, with focus on problem-based learning, emotional intelligence, integrated learning and scientific enquiry.
3. Curriculum-based Research, where alternative approaches in applying the curriculum were investigated in teaching Arabic, English, math, science and history in 33 schools. Teachers were active participants in the research.

The Centre employed these approaches when carrying out an in-depth diagnostic study of six schools in cities, towns and villages in the Ramallah and Hebron areas. The study was co-funded by UNICEF; its results will come out in the fall of 2010 and are expected to help the Ministry of Education, UNICEF and the Centre to better develop their future plans.

Teacher Professional Development
The Centre continued to offer professional development courses for teachers with emphasis in three areas; development of pre-school teachers, especially in science education; the relationship between history and literature and their role in fostering national identity, and the use of drama in education. As an offshoot of the Drama in Education Summer School, participants applied their newly acquired skills in the classroom during the academic year 09/10 under the supervision of the QCERD. The Drama in Education Teachers Forum held a number of workshops during which members shared their applied experiences and received further theoretical and practical training. The Centre also hosted the Big Brum Theatre in Education Company from the UK, which ran a number of workshops and staged a play.

Furthermore, in collaboration with the Hani Qaddumi Scholarship Foundation (see http://www.hq-sf.org/) QCERD provided a scholarship to Fareed Saadeh, who will study for an MA in Computer-assisted Language Learning at the University of Essex.

Forums
The Centre continued to provide professional and material support to the teachers' forums, which were established through teachers' initiatives in several towns and cities. The QCERD intervention focused on energising the forums and networking between them. Forums are now active in Yaabad, Jenin, Jericho and Tulkarem (northern and central West Bank); and in Ithna, Halhoul and Doura in the south, as well as one in Nazareth, which is specifically focused on drama in education. In Gaza, QCERD's forums organized 51 meetings involving 578 teachers.

In addition, the Centre launched the Teachers' Resource Centre in the village of Ni'llin (West Bank), which to date has successfully organised a number of training days and public film screenings involving ten other neighbouring villages.

Workshops, Study Days and Conferences
The Centre carried out numerous workshops and study days that included subjects such as creative thinking, emotional intelligence, maths education, the role of play in education, creative writing and the use of multimedia in teaching. In particular, QCERD continued its work in animation and established the first animation studio project in Sihwad Secondary School for Girls.

The main event this year was a two-day national conference on education held on 18 and 19 December 2009 (The 3rd Qattan Educational Conference) attended by more than 280 teachers and professionals (and a small number of pupils).

Resources, Publications and Documentation

* The Library
The number of visitors to the libraries in Ramallah and Gaza was 9,897. The collection in the libraries exceeded 21,000 titles; around 1,500 titles were added during the reporting period. Membership in databases included Questia, ASCD, NSTA and NCTM.

* Ru’a Tarbawiyyah Journal
The Centre published three issues (no. 29, 30, 31) of its quarterly educational magazine, Ru’a Tarbawiyyah. The issues respectively focused on the Qattan Annual Education Conference, early childhood and science education. Each of the issues included a number of translated papers related to the focus themes.

3) The Culture and Arts Programme
Director – Mahmoud Abu Hashhash

The Culture and Arts Programme has seen a steady rise in the number of people who have benefited directly and indirectly from its work as well as a widening of the range of cultural and artistic activities which it has organized or supported either on its own or in conjunction with others, both in Palestine and abroad.

The Performing Arts
Through the co-funding agreement with the Ford Foundation, nineteen grants were approved in the performing arts, ten of which for new productions, two for promotion, one in documentation and publication, three in research and translation, and four in specialized training. These were complimented by twelve study scholarships in instrumental and vocal fields, and seven study scholarships in theatre and dance. The Programme also supported more than seventy performances in music, theatre and stand-up comedy across the country.

As for training in the performing arts, the Programme supported another three specialized workshops, and for the fourth year running, organized the Performing Arts Summer School in partnership with the Royal Flemish Theatre in Brussels.

Literature
The Programme organized the Young Writer of the Year Award (YWYA) 2009 for best novel and best play. Fifteen novels and six plays applied. The international jury chose the novel Maqdidita Ana by Alaa Moufid Muhanna (Galilee) for best novel and withheld the best play prize. It also supported a number of literary events, including the 2nd edition of PALFEST. (www.palfest.org).

Visual Arts
The Programme received 62 applications for the 2010 Young Artist of the Year Award (YAYA). The jury shortlisted eleven artists, who will now produce their work for the final stages of the competition, in October 2010.

The Programme also organized and supported seventeen art exhibitions, and three workshops and.

Artistic and Literary Residencies
The Programme funded nine literary and art residencies, including at Cité des art in Paris, the Delfina Foundation in London and Città dellarte in Biella Italy.

Publications
The Programme published Fragile Bodies, the 2008 Young Artist of the Year Catalogue; translations of plays by Harold Pinter and Victoria Britain and a new play by Amir Nizar Zubi.

Guest House
The Foundation hosted twelve visitors from several countries that included the USA, Greece, Sweden, Eire, Denmark, Jordan, Italy and the UK at its guesthouse in Ramallah. The majority of guests were artists undertaking projects with the local community.

Other Activities
The Programme launched a new website entitled Narrating Gaza (www.narratinggaza.ps), to document artistic testimonies about the Israeli war on Gaza in January 2009.

As part of the Foundation's human resource development policy, the Programme staff participated in training activities and seminars in the US and Egypt.

The Palestinian Audio Visual Project/Classics of European Cinema in Translation — this has now been integrated into the Culture and Arts Programme under a newly created Audio-visual Unit. As part of this new unit, we launched the Production Support Project, a three-year funding project for short and medium format fiction film, co-sponsored by the Kingdom of the Netherlands office in the Palestinian Territories. A new coordinator was appointed for this project in March 2010.

The Gaza Music School Project (Coordinator: Ibrahim Najjar) - this too has now been integrated under the Culture and Arts Programme.

After re-opening for the second time in April 2009, following refurbishment of our new premises, the school re-launched with a small party. New instruments and furniture were purchased including two new Yamaha pianos, which were shipped through the good offices of ANERA. Registration for the new year opened in June 2009. 150 applications were received (three times as many as in 2008) but the selection committee was unfortunately only able to accept twenty-five new students, each of whom received a $1,500 annual scholarship. The partnership with the West Bank-based Edward Said National Conservatory of Music continued from strength to strength. There were also a couple of experimental violin lessons by videoconference with UK musician Simon Hewitt-Jones using the facilities in the Mosaic Rooms.

A number of concerts and open days were organised throughout the year, including a short performance in honour of a UK Parliamentary group visiting the Gaza Strip in mid-December 2010.

Support in-kind and in cash also continued to pour into the project from different parts of the world, including of course our three-year co-funding partnership with the Swedish International Development Agency (SIDA).

The Mosaic Rooms
(currently managed by Omar Al-Qattan on a voluntary basis)

The Rooms enjoyed a lively programme of events including:

Exhibitions:
2. Fragile Bodies — selection from Young Artist of the Year 2008 Show;

Literary Events:
- April 22: Joumana Haddad, launch of Invitation to a Secret Feast with the author reading in Arabic and Schona Jolly reading in English.
- September 30: Celebrate Darwish, launch of selection of poems translated to English, Saqi Books, with readings by Margaret Obank and Ruth Padel of translations from the Arabic, which was recited by Fawzi Karim and Omar Al-Qattan (filling in for Hanan El-Sheikh, who could not attend). Full house.
- March 18, Victor Kattan lecture. Full house.

Other events:
- Crafts Fair for Gaza, Saturday April 19.
The A. M. Qattan Foundation
Trustees’ Report
For the year ended 31 March 2010

- Arab Club film screening, evening of April 21.
- Syrian Arab Association, film screening in the presence of actress Sulaf Fawakhirji.
- Earl’s Court Festival, 8 to 19 July;
- Earl’s Court Society, Hire of Board Room;
- Funky Moves Dance Club – Alice Butler, once a week, two hours, 4 times, between September and December;
- Portobello Film Festival, two afternoon screenings, Saturday and Sunday September 12 and 13;
- October 26 to October 31, Federation of Arabic Schools: Exhibition by artist Hani Mazhar (in basement only) and two lectures;
- 24 November, East West Publishing, Company Launch, (Sahar Huneidi);
- December 12, Jason Bradbury, private exhibition;
- 14 December: The Arab Club of Britain (Nabil Muqaiser);

- 10 March: RBKC, Cycling Forum (Marina Kroyer).

Residencies:
- Abir Boukhari (Syria, young curator), seven weeks November and December, in training at Tate Britain;
- Jawad and Tina Malhi 19/1 - 23/1 – as part of preparation for Jawad’s summer show. Tina will be curating the show and staying in the residency again.
- Hazem Harb, 25/2 for two weeks, during his show;
- Zeina Barhoum, young soprano from Jordan (in association with Peace and Prosperity Trust (Raja’i Khoumi and Leila Buheiry), from 10 to 26 March for training with a number of singing coaches. We also supported her airline ticket and coaching sessions.
- Saliba Shehadeh, Welfare Association accountant, 27/3 - 4/4, for WA Echo Audit.

Events offered free of charge during the period:
- June 18, fundraising film screening for Cycle for Gaza;
- Earl’s Court Festival – although we had some profit-sharing arrangements in place, the aim of this collaboration was to improve our local exposure and profile with the Council. This partnership will be reviewed next year as it was time consuming but failed to bring in new audiences, the only exception being the evening with Tony Benn.
- Friday November 20, Welfare Association Board Meetings;
- December 12, Chelsea Music Academy launch. This project has unfortunately stopped.

Grants Policy
The majority of the grants provided by the Foundation are from within the Culture and Arts Programme. Otherwise grants are assessed and decided upon by the Board and selected according to their relevance to our overall objectives.

Financial status
The Charity is principally funded by the Al-Qattan Charitable Trust. Ever since its establishment, the Trust has been and continues to be committed to the Charity’s work and to the success, financial independence and long-term sustainability of its projects. It also maintains extremely strict parametres for accepting external funding of any sort, which must be totally unconditional. In that spirit, it has been able to develop excellent collaborative projects with highly prestigious institutions such as the Ford Foundation, as well as official agencies of the EU and the Swedish International Development Agency. This allowed it to expand its work without compromising its independence. In 2009-2010, the percentage of external funding reached 21.48% of the overall budget, a significant step in achieving the target set last year by the Board to double the Foundation’s budget and increase external funding to 40% of total.

Hence the increase in incoming resources from generated funds were due to the rise in the number of co-funded projects and activities. The marked decrease in investment income was due to the sharp drop in US$ interest rates during the period.

Under Charitable Activities, the marked increase was due to the opening and expansion of activities in The Mosaic Rooms London. On the other hand, the Foundation was able to add to its Other Incoming Resources due mainly to the sale of its car.

The A. M. Qattan Foundation
Trustees' Report
For the year ended 31 March 2010

In all, the marked decrease in Total Incoming Resources was mainly due to the net effect of the donated land on this figure during 2009 as well as the increase in income from co-funded projects during 2010. The donated land also explains the marked decrease in Net incoming/outgoing resources for the year.

This is also reflected in the significant increase in grant expenditure due to an increase in the number of projects and activities. In London, the Mosaic Rooms also necessitated a significant rise in the cost of grant making. However, a marked reduction in governance costs in 2010 was due to the one-off payment of strategic planning consultancy fees in the previous period.

Finally, under Other Recognised Gains and Losses, no currencies other than the US dollar were used for projects during 2010, which explains the marked difference in this figure between the two periods, due mainly to fluctuating exchange rates.

Reserves Policy

The Foundation maintains a 100% Cash Reserves policy as far as its employees severance pay and employees' Provident Fund are concerned (£591,206 as of March 31 2010). No other reserves policy is currently in place.

Future Plans

- To maintain high standards of professionalism and achieve our objectives in all the sectors covered by our projects;
- Make further progress on the Foundation's new Palestine HQ building, planned to open in Ramallah in 2012-2013. This will offer state of the art facilities for the Foundation's management and programmes, as well as public facilities including a gallery, library and a multi-purpose hall. It is currently in the design phase.
- Expand the network of relations with kindred organisations in the Middle East, specifically to ensure proper sharing of information, research and artistic productions of the Foundation's Programmes to the maximum number of people in the region.
- Expand the distribution network of our published material to cover the whole of the Middle East.
- Increase annual spending by attracting further external funding, without decreasing the level of contributions by the Al-Qattan Charitable Trust.

Connected Charity

The Charity provided meeting rooms and hospitality to the Welfare Association UK and Welfare Association Geneva for their semi-annual meetings in November 2009. Two of the Charity’s Trustees are also members of the Board of Trustees of the Swiss charity and one is also a member of the Uk sister charity. Welfare Association (Geneva) is one of the largest independent Palestinian NGOs, working in social, economic and cultural development.

Trustees' Responsibilities in relation to the Financial Statements

The trustees (who are also directors of the A. M. Qattan Foundation for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees’ Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in business.
The A. M. Qattan Foundation
Trustees' Report
For the year ended 31 March 2010

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as the trustees are aware:

- there is no relevant audit information of which the charitable company's auditor is unaware; and
- the trustees have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the auditor is aware of that information.

The trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the charity's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Auditors
Kingston Smith LLP have indicated their willingness to continue in office and are deemed to be reappointed in accordance with section 487(2) of the Companies Act 2006.

Small Company Exemption
The trustees have prepared this report in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

This report was approved by the Board of Trustees on ........................................

Omar Al-Qattan, Secretary
The A M Qattan Foundation
Independent Auditors' Report to the Trustees of
The A M Qattan Foundation

We have audited the financial statements of The A.M. Qattan Foundation for the year ended 31 March 2010 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities (Incorporating the Summary Income and Expenditure Account), the Balance Sheet and the related notes. These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out therein and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standards for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008).

This report is made solely to the charitable company's members, as a body, in accordance with Sections 495 and 496 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken for no purpose other than to draw to the attention of the charitable company's members those matters which we are required to include in an auditor's report addressed to them. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to any party other than the charitable company and charitable company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Auditors
The trustees' (who are also the directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) responsibilities for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice) and for being satisfied that the financial statements give a true and fair view are set out in the Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities.

Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with relevant legal and regulatory requirements and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland).

We report to you our opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view, have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice and have been prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 2006. We also report to you whether, in our opinion, the information given in the Trustees' Annual Report is consistent with the financial statements.

In addition we report to you if, in our opinion, the charitable company has not kept adequate accounting records, if the charitable company's financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns, if we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or if certain disclosures of trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made.

We read the Trustees' Annual Report and consider the implication for our report if we become aware of any apparent misstatements within it.

Basis of Audit Opinion
We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the trustees in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the charitable company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Opinion
In our opinion:
- the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31 March 2010 and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure for the year then ended;
- the financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice;
- the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 2006; and

Notes to the Financial Statements
For the year ended 31 March 2010

1 Accounting Policies

Basis of accounting
The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards. In preparing the financial statements the charity follows best practice as laid down in the Statement of Recommended Practice "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" (SORP) 2005) issued in March 2005.

Tangible Fixed Assets
Tangible fixed assets are depreciated at rates calculated to write off the cost over the term of their useful lives, as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Asset Type</th>
<th>Life</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Buildings</td>
<td>over 20 years</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Furniture and fittings</td>
<td>over 4 - 7 years</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Books</td>
<td>over 10 years</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Computer equipment</td>
<td>over 3 years</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Motor vehicles</td>
<td>over 5 years</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

The cost of the property, plant and equipment includes all of the expenditures incurred so as to make the assets ready for use. Any subsequent expenditure is capitalised only when they increase the future economic benefits to the related property, plant and equipment.

Assets under the course of construction comprise the costs incurred on an incomplete project, which include design cost, construction, direct wages and a portion of the indirect costs. After completion, all project costs are capitalised and transferred to property, plant and equipment as appropriate.

Investment Income
Gross investment income is accounted for on a receivable basis.
Income from donations and grants, including capital grants, is included in incoming resources when these are receivable, except as follows:

Donations and Grants
Income from donations and grants, including capital grants, is included in incoming resources when these are receivable, except as follows:

When donors specify that donations and grants given to charity must be used in future accounting periods, the income is deferred until those periods.

When donors impose conditions, which have to be fulfilled before the charity becomes entitled to recognise such income, the income is deferred until the pre-conditions for use have been met.

Resources Expended
Expenditure is included on an accruals basis.

Grants payable are charged in the year when the offer is conveyed to the recipient except in those cases where the offer is conditional, such grants being recognised as expenditure when the conditions attaching are fulfilled. Grants offered subject to conditions, which have not been met at the year-end, are noted as a commitment, but not accrued as expenditure.

Governance costs are those costs incurred to comply with constitutional and statutory requirements.
Support costs are those costs incurred directly in support of expenditure on the objects of the Charity.

Foreign Currency Balances
Transactions in foreign currencies are recorded at the average exchange rate for the period. Foreign currency assets and liabilities have been translated into sterling at the rate of exchange prevailing at the balance sheet date. All differences on translation are taken to the Statement of Financial Activities.

1 Accounting Policies (continued)

Fund Accounting
Details of the nature and purpose of each restricted fund is set out in note 9.

Unrestricted funds are funds which can be used in accordance with the charitable objects at the discretion of the trustees.

Provisions
Benefits payable to the Palestine employees at the end of their employment is provided for in accordance with Palestine labour laws. The calculation is based on accruing one month’s worth of compensation for each year of service based on the last basic salary paid.

The charity deducts 5% from the employees' monthly basic salaries for the provident fund and contributes a similar amount. Both contributions are deposited in a separate interest-bearing bank account.

The building is registered at the Ministry of Justice in the name of Mr A M Al-Qattan and is held in Trust for the use and benefit of the A M Qattan Foundation - Palestine. During 2008, Mr. Abd-Almohsin Al-Qattan granted the Palestine branch a piece of land as a donation to be used for establishing a new place for the Foundation. The land was valued according to prevailing market rates in Palestine.

During the year ended 31 March 2001 the Foundation started to build a Cultural Centre for the Child in Gaza. 3,041 square metres of land was allocated to the Foundation by the Municipality of Gaza for this purpose on a long leasehold basis at a peppercorn rent. The Centre, called the Qattan Centre for the Child, opened to the public in September 2005.

9 Restricted Funds

On 29 April 1998, The A M Qattan Foundation - Palestine was established as a branch of the A M Qattan Foundation for the specific purposes of managing the Foundation's work in Palestine and the projects being carried on out there.

The funds held by the branch are therefore treated as a separate restricted fund in the accounts of the charity in accordance with the treatment prescribed in the Charities' SORP.

Furthermore, during the year, a donation of £1,000 was received for the Edward Said Lecture. By the year end date, this amount had not been spent.
